

The start of our writing journey

Writing in Reception

<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can use my dominant hand and a tripod grip.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can make marks and give meaning to marks and labelling in my play.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can write my name.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can form lower-case and capital letters correctly.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can write for a range of purposes, such as making greetings cards, tickets, lists, invitations & creating my own stories and books with images and words.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can spell words by identifying sounds in them and representing the sounds with a letter or letters.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can write simple phrases and sentences e.g. describing a picture from the Easter story, which can be read by others.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can write short sentences using a capital letter, finger spaces and a full stop.
<ul style="list-style-type: none">● I can re-read what I have written to check if it makes sense.